PETRON WELCOMES ENTRIES FOR VISION PETRON 2018

KUALA LUMPUR – Petron is now accepting entries for Vision Petron 2018, marking its 6th year of being the leading student art competition in Malaysia.

The theme this year is “Rediscovering Culture” which seeks to showcase how Malaysians live as a strong and empowered people. This year, the competition introduces a new category – music composition – to cater to aspiring composers.

“Everyone has a unique interpretation of the things around us. We established Vision Petron to serve as a platform for emerging artists and art enthusiasts. By encouraging our young talents to express themselves through arts, they can become catalysts of progress and contribute to nation-building,” said Zaimi Harun, Petron’s Head of Corporate Affairs at the launch of Vision Petron 2018.

The competition is open to all university and college students (public and private) aged 17 to 28 years old. Entries may be submitted in any of the categories: art painting, photography, videography, and the newest category – music competition. Since 2013, Vision Petron has attracted close to 3,000 entries nationwide. A series of Vision Petron road shows will be held at universities and colleges to encourage more students to participate and submit their works.
