PETRON SUPPORTS SAFER NEIGHBOURHOODS WITH “GO-TO SAFETY POINTS” AT ITS STATIONS

KUALA LUMPUR, September 14, 2013 – Petron Malaysia, in partnership with the Royal Malaysian Police, has launched the “Go-To Safety Points at Petron Stations” in support of the country’s fight against crime while promoting safer communities.

“Petron has always advocated safety and caring for its communities. In Malaysia, we foster these same values in the way we do business,” Petron Retail Head Pn Faridah Ali said. “At the onset of the United Against Crime program, it was only natural for Petron to partner with the Royal Malaysian Police, and meaningfully contribute to the program’s success. This is a positive public-private partnership to make local communities safer and more secure.”

The “Go-To Safety Points” transforms strategically located Petron service stations into “safety points” for the public. The public may seek temporary shelter in Petron stations. Equipped with the Police’s network numbers, station personnel will be able to easily contact the Police.

To coincide with the launch, most Petron service stations in Klang Valley have been identified as safety points. Petron plans to transform more of its stations nationwide into safety points in the future.

Participating Petron stations can be identified by the “Go-To Safety Points” signage, strobe light, and booth, which the Police will man in-between neighbourhood safety patrols.

The initiative also increases safety and security awareness among Petron customers. Helpful information on crime prevention and safety will be displayed at selected Petron stations.

“Petron is part of many local communities. Through the years, we have grown with the communities whose residents we interact and serve daily,” Pn Faridah Ali added. “This initiative reflects our commitment to go the extra mile in serving our customers.”

Petron service station dealers also expressed their strong commitment to “Go-To Safety Points.” Now, motorists can enjoy Petron products and services in a safer and more secure environment.

“Our countrymen can continue to rely on Petron for support and to be a partner in nation-building,” Pn Faridah Ali concluded.
